

Home

18 May 2017, Thursday

5.00pm - 6.30pm

(Registration starts at 4.30pm)

Speaker

Professor Yeo Tiong Min, SC (honoris causa)

Dean, School of Law, Singapore Management University

Yong Pung How Chair Professor of Law

Venue

Singapore Management University

School of Law, Basement 1, Function Hall

55 Armenian Street

Singapore 179943

Dress Code

Business Attire

Registration

Admission is free. The School of Law reserves the right to refuse entry to persons not authorized to attend.

Please register here

Dress Code

The dress code for this lecture is strictly Business Attire.

Please note that the organisers reserve the right to refuse admission to any participant who is not properly attired

Public CPD Points	1.5 points
Practice Area	Corporate / Commercial
Training Category	Intermediate

Participants who wish to claim CPD Points are reminded that they must comply strictly with the Attendance Policy set out in the CPD Guidelines. This includes signing in on arrival and signing out at the conclusion of the activity in the manner required by the organiser, and not being absent from the entire activity for more than 15 minutes. Participants who do not comply with the Attendance Policy will not be able to obtain CPD Points for attending the activity. Please refer to www.sileCPDcentre.sg for more information.

Terms of Use | Privacy Statement

© Copyright 2021 Singapore Management University. All Rights Reserved

About the Yong Pung How Professorship of Law

The Yong Pung How Professorship of Law was established in 2007 and was made possible by a generous S$3 million endowed contribution by the Yong Shook Lin Trust. The late Mr Yong Shook Lin, who was himself a prominent lawyer, was the father of former Chief Justice Mr Yong Pung How. This is the largest donation to the SMU School of Law to date.

The first appointment to the Professorship, which is tenable for three years, was made in August 2007. The prestigious professorship aims to advance the research and teaching of law in SMU through the appointment of an acclaimed legal luminary. The Yong Pung How Chair Professor of Law is a full-time law faculty of the SMU School of Law who is an eminent legal researcher of high international standing, a thought leader and expert in his or her area of legal pursuit, and a passionate teacher of the law. He/She will contribute to the building of the School of Law in research, curriculum and pedagogical development, and in the mentorship of younger law faculty. He/She will also conduct public lectures as part of the Yong Pung How Professorship of Law lecture series.

"The Yong Pung How Professorship of Law recognizes an accomplished faculty member who has achieved a compelling stature of legal excellence. Such a scholar will be a star contribution to the SMU School of Law and will no doubt propel the school quickly to international standing. He or she will provide much gravitas and substance to legal research and teaching, and will be an asset to grooming SMU's new generation of law undergraduates who will have both solid legal foundation and a strong grasp of the workings of the financial world," said Mr Yong Pung How, former Chairman of the SMU School of Law Advisory Board and now Chancellor of SMU.

Yong Pung How

Mr Yong Pung How was Singapore's Chief Justice from 1990 to 2006, during which time he was also the President of the Legal Service Commission, the Chairman of the Presidential Council for Minority Rights, and President of the Singapore Academy of Law. Since 1991, Mr Yong has been appointed thrice by the Cabinet as acting President of the Republic of Singapore .

He started his legal career as a partner with Shook Lin & Bok in 1952, serving until his retirement from legal practice in 1970. Whilst in legal practice, he also held a variety of public appointments such as Chairman of the Malayan Public Services Arbitration Tribunal from 1955 to 1960, the Malaysian Industrial Court from 1961 to 1967, and Malayan Airways (later renamed Malaysia-Singapore Airlines) from 1964 to 1969. He was also Deputy Chairman of the largest Malayan bank, Malayan Banking Berhad between 1966 and 1971.

In 1971, Mr Yong founded the Singapore International Merchant Bankers Ltd (SIMBL) and Malaysian International Merchant Bankers Berhad (MIMB), and served as Chairman and Managing Director of both companies. In 1976, he retired from SIMBL and MIMB, and was appointed Vice-Chairman of OCBC Bank. In 1981, Mr Yong was seconded by OCBC Bank to the Singapore Government to form and head the Government of Singapore Investment Corporation (GIC). In 1982, he was appointed concurrently the Managing Director of the Monetary Authority of Singapore, Deputy

Chairman of the Currency Commissioners, and Alternate Governor for Singapore of the International Monetary Fund. He returned to OCBC Bank as its Chairman and CEO from 1983 to 1989.

Before returning to the law in 1989 when he was appointed a Judge of the Supreme Court of Singapore, Mr Yong also served as a member of the Singapore Securities Industry Council from 1972 to 1981, as a member of the Provisional Mass Rapid Transit Authority, which carried out the planning of the MRT, and later as a director of the MRT Corporation, which carried out the construction of the MRT between 1981 and 1985. He was Chairman of the Singapore Broadcasting Corporation from 1985 to 1989. In 1987 he became the first Chairman of the Institute of Policy Studies, as well as a director of the Singapore Symphony Orchestra.

Mr Yong was conferred the Distinguished Service Order in 1989 and Singapore's highest Award the Order of Temasek (First Class) in 1999. The citation on the Order of Temasek in 1999 stated that "as Chief Justice since 28 September 1990, Justice Yong Pung How has made the Singapore Judiciary world class".

He was appointed the Chancellor of Singapore Management University (SMU) from 2010 till August 2015.

Terms of Use | Privacy Statement

© Copyright 2021 Singapore Management University. All Rights Reserved

Synopsis of Lecture & Download Paper

Choice of Law for Contracts: The Hague Principles from a Singaporean and Asian Perspective

The Hague Principles on Choice of Law in International Commercial Contracts (2015) have been put forward by the Hague Conference on Private International Law as a set of non-binding principles which can be incorporated into or be supplementary to the laws of individual states. The lecture will consider the differences between the Principles and the common law, and how the Principles may work as a model for convergence of laws in Asia.

2017

- Paper
- Slides

2016

- Paper
- Slides

2015

- Paper
- Annex
- Slides

Terms of Use | Privacy Statement

© Copyright 2021 Singapore Management University. All Rights Reserved

About the Speaker

Professor Yeo Tiong Min, SC (honoris causa) Dean, School of Law, Singapore Management University Yong Pung How Chair Professor Of Law

Yeo Tiong Min graduated with an LLB from the National University of Singapore (NUS), and post-graduate degrees (BCL and DPhil) from the University of Oxford, where he was a Senior Research Fellow for a time. He taught at NUS before taking up the appointment as the first Yong Pung How Chair Professor of Law at the Singapore Management University in 2007. His research interests are mainly in private law, with a large concentration on the conflict of laws, and include contract law, the law of restitution, equity and remedies. His works have been widely cited in many jurisdictions by academics and courts. He has been actively engaged with the legal community in Singapore. He was the first person in Singapore to be appointed Senior Counsel (honoris causa) for outstanding contributions to the development of the law and the legal profession in Singapore, and has been appointed as amicus curiae to assist the Singapore Court of Appeal.

Terms of Use | Privacy Statement

© Copyright 2021 Singapore Management University. All Rights Reserved

Registration

Click here to register

Thank you for your interest in the Yong Pung How Professorship of Law Lecture.

Due to overwhelming response, we are now closed for registration and is unable to accept any waitlist.

All successfully registered attendees would have received a confirmation from us.

We seek your understanding that we would not be able to accept any wait list through email or phone calls.

As registration is based on first-come, first-served basis, we thank you for your understanding and look forward to your participation in upcoming events.

Best Regards

School of Law

Singapore Management University

Centre for Cross-Border Commercial Law in Asia

Terms of Use | Privacy Statement

© Copyright 2021 Singapore Management University. All Rights Reserved

Location Map

SMU Campus Map

How to get here

Singapore Management University
School of Law, Basement 1, Function Hall
55 Armenian Street
Singapore 179943

Bus Service Numbers :
NTUC INCOME CENTRE
(Bras Basah Road)

7,14,14e, 16,36,77,106, 111,
128,131,162, 162M, 167, 171,
175, 502,
518,700,700A,77,857

Bus Services Numbers:
SMU SCHOOL OF ACCOUNTANCY(Bus stop ID:
04121)

7,14,14e, 16,36,77,106, 111, 128,131,162, 162M, 167,
171, 175, 502,
518,700,700A,77,857,124,147,166,850E,951E,971E

MRT Stations :

City Hall MRT (EW13/NS25)
Bras Basah MRT (CC2)

Terms of Use | Privacy Statement

© Copyright 2021 Singapore Management University. All Rights Reserved