

Abdulmalik ALTAMIMI (Malik)

Curriculum Vitae

---

Education

PhD, University of Leeds, United Kingdom, 2017.

LLM, University of Aberdeen, United Kingdom, 2011.

BA, King Saud University, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, 2007.

Academic Experience

Yong Pung How Research Fellow, Singapore Management University, 2017-present.

Research Project: Procedural fairness in foreign investment law.

---

Publications

Abdulmalik M. Altamimi, 'Can the WTO Rules be Efficiently Breached for Welfarist Objectives?' (2014) Manchester Journal of International Economic Law 79-95.

---, 'An Interactional World Trade Law' (2016) International Community Law Review 317-352.

---, 'An Interactional Account of Legality and Adjudication in the WTO: Part 1' (2016) International Trade Law & Regulation 108-118.

---, 'An Evaluation of the Legal Character of the WTO DSB's Rules: Part 2' (2017) International Trade Law & Regulation 1-11.

Book Review

---, Theories and Practices of Compliance with WTO Law, Yenkong Ngangjoh Hodu (Netherlands: Kluwer Law International) International Trade Law & Regulation, 2013, 19(4) pp. 87-88.

---

Selected Conference Presentations

2nd International Law and Economics Conference, Bilkent University, Turkey, 8 May 2015. 'Legalise or not to Legalise International Trade: The Interactionalism Approach'.

The Centre for Business Law and Practice PGR Conference, University of Leeds, UK, 21 October 2015. 'The Morality of Law and Economic Management'.

Socio-legal Studies Association Annual Conference 2017, Newcastle University, UK, 5 April 2017, 'Interactional Trade Law in the Islamic Civilization'.